No. 23-CR-407-LTS

AHMED ALTOREI, SAMUEL BAUTISTA,
and RONALD CORADIN,

Defendants.

ORDER

Pending before the Court are a motion filed by Defendant Samuel Bautista seeking certain pretrial relief (docket entry no. 69) and the motions of Defendants Ahmed Altorei and Ronald Coradin<sup>1</sup> to join in Mr. Bautista's motion (docket entry no. 72, 76).

Mr. Bautista, in part, requests:

[A]n Order disclosing statements of co-conspirators and directing disclosure of all material tending to exculpate the defendant, as well as material that would substantially impeach the credibility of Government witnesses, pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 82 (1963), Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995) and Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972)[.]

(Docket entry no. 69 at 1 ¶ 3.) In his reply briefing, Mr. Bautista specifies materials that he asserts must be disclosed to him pursuant to the Government's obligations under Brady and its progeny. (Docket entry no. 75 at 4.)

<sup>1</sup> On June 12, 2025, counsel for Mr. Coradin submitted by email a motion to join Mr. Bautista's motion and stated his intention to file the motion on the public docket the following morning. As of the date of this Order, and despite the Court's request by email, counsel has not yet filed said motion.

Because Mr. Bautista did not include these specific allegations in his opening brief, and therefore allow the Government an opportunity to respond, the Government is hereby afforded until August 8, 2025, to file a response to Mr. Bautista's Brady-focused contentions.

SO ORDERED.
